The Best Value In Northern Ontario

Lost Bay Resort & Outpost Camp

Majestic rock cliffs and the pristine shoreline of Cliff Lake will surround you while you enjoy some of the greatest and affordable fishing available in Northwestern Ontario.

Cliff lake has the big five: Walleye, Lake Trout, Musky, Smallmouth Bass and Northern – all in abundance.

Fishing pressure is very light - we're the only outfitter on Cliff Lake. Even during our busiest weeks you'll see very few boats, if any, as our guests seek out all the hidden bays and remote fishing spots.

Our camps offer three varieties of house keeping accommodations: rustic log cabins, classic Canadian modernized cabins, and our new executive timber frame home – something for every expectation and every budget.

Special child rates and activities for kids. Lost Bay Outpost Camp is ideal for large groups, up to 25 or even more with very economical large group rates.

Great Fishing Anytime

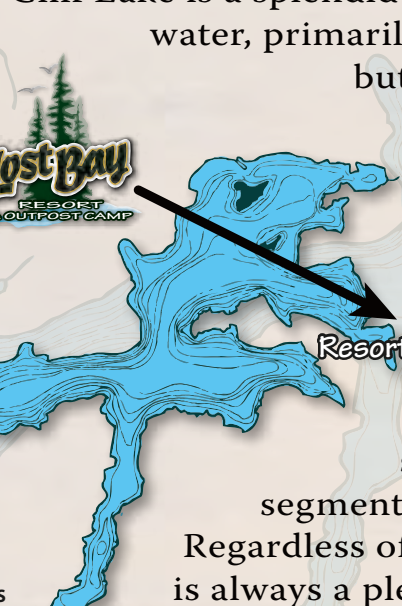

Unlimited fishing possibilities

Cliff Lake and Area

Unlimited fishing possibilities regardless of the weather, season or fishing conditions.

Cliff Lake

Cliff Lake is a splendid complex body of water, primarily clear and deep, but with numerous shallow dark colored bays providing unlimited fishing possibilities. The lake is 5,700 acres and has miles and miles of shoreline, numerous segments, channels and islands. Regardless of wind conditions, there is always a pleasant place to fish.

Add adventure to your fishing by visiting our remote lakes.

Attached Lakes

There is additional great fishing reached by boating up a navigable river to three additional classic Canadian "root beer" colored shallower lakes; Mystery, Evening and Twilight.

Portage and Cache Lakes

If you're looking for a truly rugged and remote Canadian wilderness fishing experience - where getting there is half the adventure - then try fishing any, or all, of our five nearby cache lakes.

Musky, Walleye, Northern, Lake Trout

Walleye

If your looking for a trophy Walleye, then Cliff Lake is the place to get it – they grow big here! If it's a Walleye dinner or a shore lunch you desire, then spend a few hours on Cliff or attached lakes; regardless of the time of day or sun conditions, there's always a great location. Head over to the attached dark water lakes for rapid action any time of the day.

Musky

Our best kept secret; Cliff Lake has lots of Musky and is full of giants! That's thanks to the conservation efforts practiced by Cliff Lake's fishermen and the light fishing pressure. Nearly every week someone catches a Musky fishing for Walleye, Bass or Trout. The fish in Cliff Lake are not conditioned; they follow or strike more often, and nearly everything in your tackle box will work.

Northern

Cliff Lake has its share of big Northerns. In the spring, they're in the bays, as the year progresses, you'll find them hiding in the endless structures which exist throughout Cliff Lake. For nonstop action, or to keep the kids happy, cast the shallow bays, especially in the attached lakes for smaller but hard fighting Northerns.

Lake Trout

Lake Trout are plentiful in the main bodies of Cliff Lake. They're at depth during mid summer and in shallower areas in the spring and fall. Trolling with downriggers provides lots of action, even with Great Lakes rigs up to 24'.

Jigging on Cliff Lake is just as productive as trolling with downriggers. Big trout are easy to find, the active ones hang with the baitfish.

Small Mouth Bass

Regardless of conditions, Smallies are always available and they fight like they're three times bigger than their actual size. Because the lake is so clear, you can always find Smallies with your bare eyes. They are abundant everywhere and will provide action for everyone.

Perch and White Fish

White Fish are found in the deeper zones feeding on Ciscoes. We do see big perch sporadically on a stringer of walleyes and occasionally someone comes in with a basket of them.

Three Varieties of Lodging - Rugged to Luxury

There are six separate beds, five queens, and one single providing a sleeping capacity from six to eleven - if there are couples or children in the group. The Executive Timber Frame has two full baths, a dishwasher microwave, coffee maker, dishes and cooking utensils. The bedrooms have counters and ample shelves, bed linens are provided.

Lost Bay Outpost Camp

Lost Bay Outpost Camp is on the northwestern end of Cliff Lake. It is accessible by vehicle down a private five-mile gravel access road or by boat from the Headquarters at Lost Bay Resort.

The Outpost Camp's fascinating history dates back to the 1920's when the only way in was thirty plus miles by boat with numerous portages, or by horse and sled over the frozen lakes in the winter. Many of the original log buildings are still present; they provide the ambiance that will make your stay at Lost Bay Outpost Camp so special.

There is no staff present at the Outpost Camp, and it is located far from civilization in an area of Cliff Lake that sees few fishermen. A stay at Lost Bay Outpost Camp is as close as you can get to a wilderness "fly in" at a fraction of the cost.

The camp is equipped with central showers, toilets and a state-of-the-art, fully remote, quiet, power generator.

Lost Bay Outpost Camp is an ideal setting for large groups, up to 25 or more people.

Very economical large group rates include the use of the lodge for cooking and dining and to congregate your group.

Outpost Camp Log Cabins

The four main one-room cabins have a variety of sleeping arrangements that accommodate from 2 to 6 people. The cabins are equipped with stove, refrigerator, sink, dinnerware, cooking utensils, wood stoves for heating and an outside BBQ grill. There is one electrical outlet for charging cameras, cell phones or other small re-chargeable items.

There are two sleeping only cabins to facilitate larger groups.

Other Activities

Hiking, Sightseeing and Photography:

Bring your camera – lots of wildlife, sunsets, and seaplanes. Up the road is the historic gold mining areas of Red Lake and Madsen.

Golfing: Two courses, one up the road in Ear Falls, the other in Red Lake - the most northerly 18-hole golf course in Ontario.

Shopping: in Vermillion Bay, Ear Falls or Dryden.

ATV or Jeep Trails and Roads: The remoteness of the Lost Bay Outpost is especially advantageous for ATV's.

Canoeing and Kayaking: Serenity and silence – with the exception of the call of the loon.
